The Perfect Fit

AT SHERATON TOWERS SINGAPORE

At the Heart of Everything

For years, the Sheraton Towers name has been associated with the richness of luxury and the warmth of home. This comes from treating our guests like family - by understanding and meeting your needs with service that is meticulous yet discreet.

The quiet opulence of Sheraton Towers is tucked along Scotts Road, right at the doorstep of Orchard Road. For you and your guests, this translates into the convenience of a central location without the city crowds. Accessibility is also guaranteed with Newton MRT station just beside the hotel and an onsite private carpark with ample parking space.

Details like these matter when you are planning the perfect wedding. And it is all taken care of at Sheraton Towers Singapore.

Personally Yours

A beautiful wedding is like a treasure chest of precious memories - curated moments that are irreplaceable and cherished eternally. That is why our wedding consultants are committed to helping you craft the dream wedding just like you have always imagined it to be.

As an advisor, personal aide and expert planner, our wedding consultants will be with you every step of the way, simplifying the planning process so that you can enjoy every moment leading up to your special day. And when your big day finally arrives, a dedicated banquet manager will be on-site to ensure that it goes flawlessly as per your heart's desires.

Your wedding is a deeply personal occasion, and we hold it dear to heart.

An Intimate Affair

In a wonderland of lush greenery - peaceful and tranquil, a solemnisation ceremony is transformed into a fairy tale of whimsical romance.

At Sheraton Towers, say your vows in an enchanting overwater pavilion, set against the majesty of gushing waterfall, and surrounded by the blessings and well wishes of your closest friends and family. Refreshments and conversations will flow from the beautiful alfresco space into the air-conditioned comfort of an elegantly-appointed function room inside the hotel.

This thoughtfulness extends to your tea ceremony - where a separate space with the necessary set-up and an attending server can be meticulously arranged for you to make your traditional bows in private.

It is a ceremonial wedding that is intimate and romantic, tasteful and elegant. Just like you envisioned it to be.

Only a resplendent ballroom, with soaring ceilings and chandeliers glittering overhead, is befitting of the most momentous day of your life. With a versatile selection of function spaces, a wedding celebration at Sheraton Towers can be as large and magnificent, or as cosy and personal as you desire, and with no supporting pillars, our opulent ballroom affords your guests clear, uninterrupted views of the lavish affair.

Preceding the grand ballroom is an expansive foyer area, perfect for pre-dinner cocktails. The large open space overlooks the hotel's gushing waterfall, and stretches to meet a wide curved staircase where you will make a sweeping entrance.

It is designed to take your breath away, even as you take everyone's breath away.

Designed for Grandeur

Dressed to Impress

Beyond a ceremony, a wedding is a celebration of two lives joining as one, and of two people refined by one life-changing moment. It is a personal affair, and one that deserves to be tailored to perfection.

At Sheraton Towers, we believe that your wedding celebration should be as unique and exceptional as you are. With our signature décor themes, you can dress up your wedding banquet to reflect your own style and personality - be it glamorous and bold, graceful and elegant, or hopelessly romantic. Your theme of choice will be carried through the entire event, uniting everything from floral arrangements and the wedding cake, to table linen and seat covers.

It is the personal touch that will make your big day all the more memorable.

Suite Romance

Having shone so brightly throughout your wedding, it is finally time to return to the quiet embrace of your well-appointed bridal suite. The unprecedented luxury of your one-bedroom suite is a welcome treat for the senses, and a haven to rest, relax and recharge. It is a sanctuary and a getaway; a retreat into romance, undisturbed.

Epicurean Elegance

The famed chefs of Li Bai Cantonese Restaurant are renowned for their authentic Cantonese cuisine and meticulous attention to detail. And these are the same food artisans who will orchestrate a gastronomic meal for you and your guests.

More than just a meal, it is an exquisite culinary experience that will add to the perfection of your big day that will be remembered by you and your guests for a long time to come.

Individually plated Western menus and options for special dietary needs are also available.

A Touch of Finesse

Trust the magic of new beginnings at Sheraton Towers where every wedding is a true celebration of the most momentous moment in your life. – it is the event of a lifetime, unforgettable in so many ways. With an extra touch or two, you can turn it from a beautiful memory into a truly magical experience.

Imagine indulging your guests with an ice-sculpted champagne bar and a decadent dessert buffet, or picture them being greeted by a candy parlour, colour-coordinated to match the décor theme of your wedding banquet. You could have exquisite floral arrangements adorning every table, and wedding favours waiting to be brought home and cherished. These premium options are available as upgrades with our wedding packages, because it's the little things that will make a world of difference – both to you and your guests.
